Enclosed is a copy of the information sent to (Compensator), which shows the amount of recoverable benefit(s)/lump sum(s) paid to your client (Clients names)

If you disagree with the information on the Certificate

If you think any of the benefit(s)/lump sum details shown on the Certificate are wrong, or were not paid as a result of the accident, injury or disease you can ask for the case to be looked at again.

A review or an appeal request must be in writing and should provide the reasons why the Certificate is considered to be wrong.

An appeal can only be accepted if the compensation payment is reduced on account of some or all of the benefit/lump sum shown on the Certificate. Requests must be submitted after the compensation payment has been made and within one month of the compensator repaying the total amount on the Certificate to the CRU.

Please note: This is for information only – no payment is required from you.
