Declaration

I declare that my individual professional practice comprises predominantly or exclusively of actions for or on behalf of insurance companies and self insurers (excluding legal expenses insurers). If this ceases to be the case I will inform the Committee immediately in writing.

I confirm that any information received by me through membership of FOIL will not be disclosed to any individual who does not act exclusively or predominantly for insurance companies and self insurers (excluding legal expenses insurers) and/or insurance clients of the same.

I confirm that my practice remains as declared on my original application.

I apply to renew my Membership of the Forum of Insurance Lawyers.

I enclose a cheque for £95.00 made payable to Forum of Insurance Lawyers being the current annual, individual membership subscription rate
