BLM partner Tony Murray is to become chairman of the Forum of Insurance Lawyers in Scotland.

Murray, who is currently the vice chair of Foil in Scotland, brings with him more than 20 years of industry experience, specialising in handling the defence of personal injury claims for a variety of insurers since 1993.

Three other BLM partners have simultaneously been appointed to senior regional roles.

Gillian Rushbury, who heads up the BLM Solicitor Advocacy Unit, will take on the role of Scottish representative on the National Executive Committee.

Jonathan Clay, from the firm's Manchester office, has also been elected to sit on the National Executive Committee and Alison Cassidy who is based in BLM's Belfast office has been appointed as regional representative for Northern Ireland.

Rushbury, brings with her a wealth of experience and expertise in all aspects of civil litigation with main areas of focus including motor, employers' and public liability cases.

Clay is a member of BLM's executive board, head of BLM's general insurance sector group and is client relationship manager for Zurich Insurance, and the Ecclesiastical Insurance Group.

His expertise in employers' and public liability claims spans both the public and private sectors.

Cassidy manages BLM's credit hire team in Belfast and advises clients during pre and post litigation on latest tactics to secure ultimate savings and reduce leakage on credit hire claims.

She also defends high value employers', public and road traffic liability claims for insurers, public bodies and self-insureds and is an existing member of the credit hire sector focus group.
