

Informing Progress - Shaping the Future

Reforming Fees in the United Kingdom

Supreme Court

7 November 2023

A Ministry of Justice (MoJ) consultation proposes a series of reforms to the fees payable in the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom. The proposals include (1) combining certain fees; (2) removing the distinction between devolution jurisdiction case and civil case fees; (3) increasing fees using CPI and (4) future routine reviews and uplifts in court fees.

Full details of the consultation can be found at the following link:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/consultations/reforming-fees-in-the-united-kingdom-supreme-court>

Consultation Responses are due by 27 November 2023.

Please forward any comments or observations on the consultation to jeffrey.wale@foil.org.uk before this date.

This publication is intended to provide general guidance only. It is not intended to constitute a definitive or complete statement of the law on any subject and may not reflect recent legal developments. This publication does not constitute legal or professional advice (such as would be given by a solicitors' firm or barrister in private practice) and is not to be used in providing the same. Whilst efforts have been made to ensure that the information in this publication is accurate, all liability (including liability for negligence) for any loss and or damage howsoever arising from the use of this publication or the guidance contained therein, is excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law.